

A Great and Marv'lous Work is Ours

Words by Toni Thomas

Music by Diane Tuiofu

Boldly ♩=94-98

1. A great and marv'-lous work is ours To roll God's king - dom through the earth! And
2. Be nev - er wear - y of the work; The prize is great, the prom - ise sure, By
3. As - cend the high and ho - ly mount! Be - hold the en - sign there un - furled As

5 read - y in these fin - al hours, Our hearts, to mag - ni - fy His work. Though oath and cov - e - nant con - ferred, We will ob - tain if we en - dure. Now right - eous-ness, from heav - en sent, Joins truth be - low to flood the earth! With 9 now the hour grows dark and fierce, Let not the faith - ful be dis - mayed. For let us to the task at hand Bend all our strength and lend our best, That cheer - ful mind and read - y hands Press for - ward, hold - ing hope stead - fast, 'Til 13 ev' - ry storm of doubt must cease When dawns that bright, e - ter - nal day.

we may with the wor - thy stand And now and ev - er claim His rest.
gath - er - ing from ev' - ry land, We rise to meet our Lord at last.